1. Who was Haman? (1) What made him furious with Mordecai (2) and what did he plan as a result? (2)
Ans.  L14 p 60
Haman was a prince under king Ahasuerus who enjoyed some special privileges including one, where people would have to bow down as he passed by. Mordecai being a Jew would not bow to anyone except God and thus did not bow down to Haman as he passed by. This infuriated Haman who took it not only as a personal insult but also as a crime against the entire Persian Kingdom.

Haman conspired with his wife and devised a plan and forced the king to issue an edict to kill all the Jews on a single day 11 months later.

5. To whom did Jesus tell the parable of the Good Samaritan and why? (2 points) Briefly explain how the story of the Good Samaritan explains how we should love our neighbor? (3 points)

One day a lawyer asked Jesus how to obtain eternal life. Jesus asked him what was written in the law and the lawyer said that the greatest commandments were to love God and love one’s neighbor. But the lawyer wanted to justify himself and asked Jesus who his neighbor was. Jesus told him the Good Samaritan accordingly. The story of the Good Samaritan describes the story of a man who was left for dead after being attacked by robbers. After a priest and Levite who represented leaders in the Jewish community passed him by, a Samaritan had compassion on the man on the road. Jews did not like Samaritans but yet this man had compassion on the victim. The story of the Good Samaritan teaches us that we ought to be a neighbor to anyone around us regardless of their past.

When blended with western Christianity and many of its relevant aspects our church became an eastern reformed church

Characteristics

Section 6. Essay. Choose one of the following two topics to write an essay not exceeding 200 words. Essay shall have an introduction, body and conclusion. (Total 15 points)

1. Encountering Jesus personally can truly be a life-changing experience. Explain how encountering Jesus radically transformed Saul’s life. In your response, start by describing Saul’s past and his background and then explain what happened. What were the changes in his life? Do you think knowing Jesus personally is important? Why or why not?

   Ans. L16 p.67-69

   Saul was an extremely devout Jew from Tarsus who was a Pharisee from the tribe of Benjamin. He was a Roman citizen as well. He was a very knowledgeable person and had been trained under a man named Gamaliel. He was a strict follower of Judaism and hated Christians because he believed that they were leading people astray from the commandments of God and the Law of Moses. Saul could not believe Jesus’ statement that Jesus was the way, the truth, and the life.

   As a result, Saul began to persecute Christians left and right. He was present at the stoning of Stephen and imprisoned many Christians.

   One day on his way to Damascus, there was a blinding light and the Lord Jesus appeared to Saul and asked him—Saul, Saul why do you persecute me? Saul was struck with blindness and was told that God would instruct him on what he was to do. A prophet Ananias prayed over Saul shortly after and Saul was baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit. Saul then began to talk about Jesus was the Messiah and shared his faith with others. God called Saul his chosen vessel to bring the good news of Jesus to the Gentiles across the world.

   Students can comment on what they feel about knowing Jesus at this point.

2. We often claim that we love God above everything else but it’s only when we look within ourselves or have our hearts truly searched that we understand that maybe we are not selfless as we thought. Explain how Jesus proves this to be true in his encounter with the rich young man? What was the rich man searching for and how did Jesus approach him? What happened ultimately as a result? How do you think this applies to everyday life?
One day a rich young ruler approached Jesus and asked Jesus what he would need to do eternal life. The rich young man appeared to have everything together since he appeared to ask a very sincere question and appeared to be very humble in approaching Jesus on his knees.

Jesus asked him in return if he kept the commandments such as “Do not steal, kill or commit adultery.” The young man replied he had kept these commandments since childhood. The young man felt that since he kept all the commandments everything was set for him to receive eternal life.

Jesus truly loved the young man and looking at him asked him to sell his possessions and give the money to the poor and then go and follow Jesus. The rich man was extremely grieved. He was willing to follow the 10 commandments as long as he did not need to sacrifice his wealth. His wealth was true source of happiness and through Jesus’ commandment the rich young man saw where his priorities lay. He had become extremely attached to his wealth and could not let it go.

God is not against us having wealth but he does not want anything else in our life to take his place. (Students can list things and pleasures that might take the place of God in their life.)
